

22 NYCRR 34.0
 Official compilation of Codes, Rules and Regulations of the State of New York.
 Title 22, Judiciary Subtitle A
 Judicial Administrative Policies
 Subchapter A
 Rules of the Chief Judge, Part 34

	CITY HALL	JUSTICE CENTER
Fire Alarm System	NO	YES
Fire Extinguisher System	NO	YES
Required number of Jury Deliberation Rooms, Attorney/Client Conference Rooms, clerical and other offices of adequate size	NO	YES
Jury Deliberation Rooms should be sound proof	NO	YES
Private rooms for confidential functions, like conferences w/ judges, attorney/client interviews	NO	YES
Prisoner holding facilities adjacent to the courtroom should allow separation of males and females.	NO	YES
Prisoner holding facilities adjacent to the courtroom should provide for at least one secure attorney/client interview room.	NO	YES
Separate patterns of circulation for judges, jurors, prisoners and the public.	NO	YES
Separation of courtroom into two areas, "well" area for participants in proceeding and separate area for the public.	NO	YES
Entry/Exit to courtroom for jurors to avoid mixing w/the public	NO	YES
Separate jury box	NO	YES
Witness stand raised above the floor with rail and shelf	NO	YES
Jury room adjacent to the courtroom with access through non-public corridors; constructed to assure confidentiality, with coat closet and at least one restroom.	NO	YES
Security requirements, the details of which are confidential.	NO	YES